

NCAP's Good Practice Guide

The Good Practice Guide is a compilation of the shared knowledge and experience of over 45 NCAP affiliated projects who have worked for many years with individuals involved in prostitution in the UK. With over 120 pages the Guide covers a range of topics in an easily accessible format. Insights cover the many issues often encountered by projects who work with those involved in prostitution, and offers helpful suggestions to achieve the highest possible standard of care and service delivery in supporting vulnerable individuals.

- ✓ Section 1: Meeting a need – understanding prostitution and the process of change.
- ✓ Section 2: Deciding what to do and how to do it – developing the project and consulting people involved in prostitution.
- ✓ Section 3: Getting the project off the ground – setting up the project and implementing the necessary policies and procedures to achieve good practice. (including policy examples from projects around the UK)
- ✓ Section 4: Staying on track – developing the project and recognising opportunities for growth.
- ✓ Appendices: Good practice self assessment audit and feedback forms.
